

SPAGN Conference Participant Profile

Name: Ivana Nikolov

Organisation: SPAGN

Role / Stakeholder Type: Patient Advocate

Country: Macedonia

What is your connection to sarcoma or your sarcoma story?

I began as a volunteer, and through the connections I made and the experience I gained, I gradually entered the broader field of patient advocacy, which truly reflects the strength and interconnectedness of the advocacy community.

What's most important to know about your organization?

SPAGN is a global network that brings together sarcoma patient advocacy groups from around the world, making it an inspiring and supportive community to be part of.

What are you most interested in collaborating on?

Awareness, Innovation, Patient Support

Your role in the organisation and main areas of involvement:

Project Manager and Administrative Assistant - heavily involved in everyday operations, administrative support, membership activities, awareness campaign etc.

How can others best connect with you after the conference?

Email: ivana.nikolov@sarcoma-patients.org

One fun fact about you or something you are proud of:

I use every opportunity to visit a new country and I would love to try all different cuisines in the world. I have lost 40 kg after giving birth and I am the proudest mother of my baby girl Jana.

