

SPAGN Conference Participant Profile

Name: Lilian Smedberg

Organisation: Sarkomföreningen

Role / Stakeholder Type: Patient Advocate

Country: Sweden

What is your connection to sarcoma or your sarcoma story?

Worked as a onchologynurse at Karolinska Hospital for 30 years with sarcomas. Now retired.

What's most important to know about your organization?

To make sarcoma more famous. Help patients to get contact with other persons with the same illness. Encourage more research.

What are you most interested in collaborating on?

Research, Innovation, Patient Support

Your role in the organisation and main areas of involvement:

Patient support.

How can others best connect with you after the conference?

E-mail.

One fun fact about you or something you are proud of:

Our engagement.

