

SPAGN Conference Participant Profile

Name: Michi Geissler

Organisation: SPAGN and German Sarcoma Foundation

Role / Stakeholder Type: Patient Advocate

Country: Germany

What is your connection to sarcoma or your sarcoma story?

I'm working in patient advocacy for over 20 years now. Through personal contacts I came to work for SPAGN and helped to build up and develop SPAGN over the years. My work background is business administration, specifically in the areas communication/marketing, IT and organizational management, so my main focus within SPAGN is organizational development, communication, event management and project management. I like the power of SPAGN and the network to bring the right people together, so new ideas and projects can evolve.

What's most important to know about your organization?

SPAGN is THE network for the global sarcoma community bringing together patient advocates/patients, medical experts, pharma representatives and other healthcare stakeholders.

What are you most interested in collaborating on?

Awareness, Partnerships, Innovation, Patient Support, New and solutions to enhance the work of patient organisation

Your role in the organisation and main areas of involvement:

Event and project management, communication and operations
