

SPAGN Conference Participant Profile

Name: Sandra Strauss

Organisation: University College London

Role / Stakeholder Type: Healthcare Professional/Speaker

Country: UK

What is your connection to sarcoma or your sarcoma story?

I am a medical oncologist and specialise in giving systemic therapy to adult and TYA patients with sarcoma. I am involved in and lead clinical and translational research in sarcoma focused on improving outcomes for patients through clinical trials and national and international multi-disciplinary collaboration that involves patients. This includes the EuroEwing and FOSTER consortia.

What's most important to know about your organization?

I work at University College London hospital part of the London Sarcoma Service, one of the large sarcoma services in Europe. We treat patients of all ages

What are you most interested in collaborating on?

Research, Awareness, Access, Policy, Partnerships, Innovation, Patient Support

Your role in the organisation and main areas of involvement:

Clinical Lead and researcher

How can others best connect with you after the conference?

s.strauss@ucl.ac.uk

One fun fact about you or something you are proud of:

I have a dog called Toast

