

SPAGN Conference Participant Profile

Name: Silvia Kraft

Organisation: Bone Cancer Research Trust

Role / Stakeholder Type: Charity Representative

Country: UK

What is your connection to sarcoma or your sarcoma story?

I'm passionate about sarcoma because, like many others, I've been affected by cancer in my own family. Working for the Bone Cancer Research Trust and collaborating with organisations like SPAGN has highlighted how advocacy can drive meaningful progress.

What's most important to know about your organization?

BCRT is the leading UK charity dedicated to saving lives and improving outcomes for those impacted by primary bone cancer, also known as bone sarcoma.

What are you most interested in collaborating on?

Awareness, Access, Policy

Your role in the organisation and main areas of involvement:

My role as Policy and Awareness Officer includes activities such as patient advocacy, campaigning, and healthcare professional education.

How can others best connect with you after the conference?

Silvia.Kraft@bcrt.org.uk

One fun fact about you or something you are proud of:

Two years ago, I started running and completed my first ever half marathon as a fundraiser for BCRT!
