Uniting globally. Working together. Driving change.

Sarcoma Patient Advocacy Global Network

What can patients tell us about the path to a sarcoma diagnosis?

Explore the data. Gain new insights.
Ask your own questions.

More than 1,800 patients and caregivers from 49 countries shared their experiences of the diagnostic journey.

THE DIAGNOSTIC JOURNEY IN NUMBERS

29 days
Median time from first symptoms to seeking medical care

n = 1,647

60 days
Median time from first medical contact to diagnosis

n = 1,662

22.7%
Reported a change in their diagnosis during their patient journey

n = 1,796

33.8%
Reported lack of awareness about sarcoma among HCPs as a barrier to diagnosis

610/1,803

Want to explore further?

Discover patient-reported experiences of symptoms, diagnostic intervals, healthcare pathways and barriers across sarcoma subtypes and countries.

TRY THE SPAGN DATA EXPLORER - LIVE AT CTOS

Scan here and explore online!

Data Explorer
Global Sarcoma Diagnosis Pathway Survey

Source: SPAGN Global Sarcoma Diagnosis Pathway Survey.
Findings are descriptive and based on self-reported survey responses.